

Easy ET Technology Solutions PLC

Quality policy

January 01 2022

Easy ET Technology Solutions PLC is committed to continually improve its performance depending on the ever-current needs and demands of the customers in electromechanical, Communication and security services delivery sector of the country. To make sure that it remains the favorite face of customers, the organization will identify needs and demands of the customers and strive to completely meet them. Meet all applicable regulatory and legislative requirement related to the quality management system.

The goal of the management and employee of the organization is to secure maximum customers satisfaction from its service and the organization will strive to enhance customer satisfaction by using only competent and motivated manpower, capable machineries and the most UpToDate methods and information in the sector.

The organization works with the best suppliers in field of electromechanical, communication and security services sectors by delivering a mutually beneficial common ground for organization and suppliers. To realize this, the organization management and employee are strongly committed to the development, implementation, maintenance and continual improvement of quality management system based on ISO 9001:2015.

The policy is communicated, understood, implemented, reviewed, updated and maintained at all levels of the organization.

Wendwosen Abebe

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Wendwosen Abebe', is written over a white background.

General Manager

